

God, Creation, & Climate

CONFERENCE

Photo: Michael Forsberg

In the face of environmental calamity, how does our faith call us to protect life on earth?

This event brings together people of all backgrounds to talk about the spiritual, moral and ethical implications of climate change. How much are our religious traditions responsible for the climate crisis? Can people of faith lead us out of it? Can we re-imagine our relationship with God and with the natural world? What actions can our communities take now to make real change?

Saturday, March 21, 2015

8:30 am–1:00 pm

Mammel Hall, UNO College of Business Administration, 6708 Pine St., Omaha

Tickets: $35/person. Students: $15. Discount: $25/person if two or more register together. Ticket price includes lunch. Late fee (after March 7): $45/person or $25/student.

Registration Deadline: March 14. Walk-in registration without lunch available: $45/person or $25/student

To Register: Go to God-Creation-Climate.eventbrite.com

More information: email info@nebraskaipl.org or call (402) 405-9425.

TOPICS INCLUDE Generating Climate Conversations in Your Congregation 🌱 Clean Energy in Nebraska 🌱 Introduction to Climate Advocacy 🌱 Culture Change for the Faith Community 🌱 Fossil Fuels Divestment 🌱 Sustainable Facilities Management 🌱 UNL Climate Assessment Report

SPONSORS INCLUDE Green Omaha Coalition, Green Bellevue, Interchurch Ministries of Nebraska, Nebraska Conference of the United Church of Christ

Register at God-Creation-Climate.eventbrite.com

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Richard Miller

is Associate Professor of Theology at Creighton University and author of God, Creation and Climate Change: A Catholic Response to the Environmental Crisis, winner of the 2011 Catholic Press Association of U.S. and Canada book award in the faith and science category.

SCHEDULE

8:30	Registration open Refreshments served
9:00	Keynote Speech
10:00	Breakout Session One
10:50	Breakout Session Two
11:30	Catered Lunch
12:30	Closing Plenary Session

HOSTED BY

Nebraska
Interfaith
Power & Light

www.nebraskaipl.org